Programme for 2018-19

Capacity Building for Faculty Members in Academic innovation and Research excellence

The Fostering Linkages in Academic Innovation and Research (FLAIR) started in the year 2013-14, and has already trained more than 650 newly inducted faculty members of Colleges and University Departments through Induction Training Programme, Short term Trainings in national institutions and Internships in National/International Institutions. Ninety IQAC Coordinators of Arts and Science Colleges have also been offered training in quality assurance in Higher Education. The programme has offered one-month internships to forty-seven faculty members in reputed UK Universities and to thirty-six faculty members in national institutions.

The programme during the year 2018-19 will be focussing on three areas namely, Training and Internships (T&I), Community Engagements, and Promotional Schemes to encourage meritorious work. Capacity building workshops in teaching, research, and administrative skills; summer internships at institutes of excellence in India etc. will be focused in training and internship. In the community engagement part focus will be on enabling networking among faculty members to develop a knowledge hub. A web based portal for this is also envisaged. Teaching Learning and Research Excellence Awards and assistance for attending national and / or international conferences / workshops / seminars (with paper), will be the focus in promotional scheme.

General Conditions

1. Must belong to Government/Aided Arts and Science Colleges, University Teaching Departments and Govt./Aided Engineering Colleges.

2. Should be having less than five years of service (Other Service such as those in Schools, Government/Public Sector/Private institutions will also be counted).

3. Senior faculty members can apply for Teaching-Learning and Research Excellence Awards.

4. Assistances for attending conferences/workshops/Seminars will be provided for faculty members having less than five years of service.

5. In all programmes of FLAIR weightage / preference will be given to faculty members from government institutions.
